LIVING OVER RAGING FURNACE

Police and Firemen Seek to Locate Fire Covering 50
Acres Underground

Fire in Lower West Scranton
Mine District Endan-
gers Thousands

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 6.—Residents of lower West Scranton are living over a raging furnace while officials of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad and the city police and fire departments are trying to determine the exact location of a fire covering 50 acres underground.

The fire was discovered Monday when huge clouds of smoke began pouring through the shaft of the Continental Mine, owned by the railroad.

While there appears to be no immediate danger to the thousands of people living over this particular area, officials fear that if any surface settlements should occur while the blaze is raging, the fumes of gas, sulphur and black damp would creep up through the crevices and possibly enter the homes of the residents with results that might in some cases prove fatal.

QUESTION COMMISSION

Charter-makers to Be Questioned by Members of Chamber of Commerce

The members of the Lowell charter commission are to be placed—or rather they are to place themselves—on the grill at the annual meeting of the chamber of commerce to be held in Memorial hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

An invitation has been sent by the chamber to all of the members of the commission to be present at the meeting, and to give their views regarding different provisions of the new charter and to answer any question that the members may propose.

It is expected that each person present will have placed in his hands at the opening of the session a copy of the proposed charter as it is to be.

Other features of next Tuesday's meeting will be a valedictory address by President William K. Goodell and reports on the year's activities of the submitted to the legislature.

Drive For New Members
The membership committee of the chamber has completed plans for the drive for new members that is soon to start.

Charles W. Howland has been selected to have charge of the campaign, taking the place of Chairman C. D. A. Grasse, who is compelled to be away from Lowell during the time of the drive.

Captains of teams to engage in the drive have been selected as follows: Dr. P. A. Kent, Fred Hayward, J. R. Cannon, George A. Meador and A. P. Sarre. An additional team is to be organized by members of the Rotary club.

A meeting of the Lowell Traffic club is to be held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. John A. McKenna, chairman of the club, will name the chairman of the standing committee of the organization, who will later select their associates.

The committee are as follows: Chas. and de murrage, grievances and complaints; classification and rates; membership meetings and entertainments. The resignation of the secretary-treasurer, Winfield S. Whitcomb, will be acted upon. A large number of applications for membership will be considered.

PRES. DE VALERA MAKES DENIAL

Sinn Fein Not Making Peace
Overtures to England, He Declares

Will Not, However, Turn
Deaf Ear to Proposals of English Government

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Eamon de Valera denies that the Sinn Fein is making peace overtures to England, says the Freeman's Journal in a forecast of its forthcoming manifesto. He is quoted, however, as saying he will not turn a deaf ear to proposals of the English government, if they are based upon recognition of Ireland as an independent nation.

When representatives of the English nation are prepared to meet representatives of the Irish nation on an equal national footing, peace talk will be possible, the forecast of the manifesto continues.

De Valera explains, adds the newspaper, that his return from America was necessary so that he might resume responsibility for the direction of the Sinn Fein, in view of the arrest of Arthur Griffith.

$150,000 FIRE LOSS

Fire Breaks Out on Wharf
at Belfast, Me. and Spreads to Pejepscot Paper Plant

PEJEPSCOT, Me., Jan. 6.—Damage estimated at $150,000 was caused today by a fire which originated on the wharf of the Consumers' Fuel Co. and spread to the adjoining wharf on which is located the pulpwood discharging plant of the Pejepscot Paper Co.

The company's plant, known as a model of its kind, with its three big motor plants and used in discharging pulpwood, brought from Canada by steamers for its mills at Pejepscot, was put out of commission. The company's loss was placed by the local manager at in excess of $100,000, covered by insurance.

The Consumers' Fuel Co. lost its wood and coal sheds, 50 cords of wood and a large part of 1800 tons of coal. Its wharf was badly damaged. It is insured.

A large amount of lumber to have been used in extending the Pejepscot wharf was burned and 3500 cords of its pulpwood, mostly spruce, stored on the fuel company's wharf, was more or less burned.

Barge No. 2 and the Rockland scow Radium were wet down by the tug Pejepscot so that they escaped damage. Low tide prevented their removal.

Fire was carried across a mile across the city, setting fire in several places, including the lumber yards of Cooper & Co., but these were extinguished without loss.

NIGHT WORK SUSPENDED
AT B. & M. CAR SHOPS

Night work at the Boston & Maine carshops in Billerica was suspended at 4 o'clock this morning and as a result about 200 men were thrown out of employment. The men were paid off before they left and were told that they would be sent for when needed. The address and nearest telephone of each employee was taken by officials of the company.

It is understood there is a movement on foot among the members of the various union locals of the shop to request the company to operate the day force but four days a week in order to provide employment for all the men who were laid off this morning, and this evening special meetings of the various locals will be held in Odd Fellows building, Middlesex street, at which the matter will be discussed thoroughly. The day gang of the shop is now being employed 18 hours a week.

HAD REVOLVER UNDER PILLOW

Sensational Story of Escape is Told in Police Court

Annie Servant Jumped 12
Feet From Detention
Room Window

Police Find Her in Camp
Near Mountain Rock—
Arrests Expected

Now Annie Servant, arraigned last Friday in the local court before Judge Knight charged with improper conduct, jumped 12 feet to the ground from the window of the detention room in which she was held at the police station and escaped about 11 o'clock last night and was captured by Captain Atkinson and Officer Moore in a camp near Mountain Rock, Lakeview, at 4:30 o'clock this morning, was revealed, when her case was called on continuance this morning.

The officers broke through the camp door and found the girl, partially dressed lying on a mattress on the floor with a loaded 38 calibre Colt automatic under her pillow. No additional charge was entered against her, but she was ordered under $1000 bail until tomorrow morning. Judge Knight ordered Officer Conroy to bring in the man the girl declares took her to the camp in an automobile and gave her the automatic.

Had High Time Here
This case has had a touch of the sensational since the servant girl was arraigned one week ago. She was arrested with one Jeanne Phillips of Worcester, an escaped prisoner from Lowell who has since been returned to this institution. Both were in this city for about a month, living the high life and enjoying different parties with young men of the city who furnished them with money. The girls claimed to be daughters of wealthy parents in New York and they told the police that they were intimately acquainted with several prominent young men.

Last Friday the servant girl's case was continued for one week to give time for an examination. She was sent to the home of the Good Shepherd in Boston for detention. To be on hand for her trial this morning she was brought back to the local station late yesterday afternoon and put in the detention room which faces out upon the street.

MAN WHO SAWED WAY OUT OF PRISON CAUGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Harry L. Blizberger, who sawed his way out of the West Side prison here last Monday, has been captured in Providence, according to word received by the police here today.

When he escaped he was being held for extradition to New Brunswick, N. J., where he is wanted in connection with the $27,000 robbery on Dec. 20th last, of the Milwau National bank.

A large amount of lumber to have been used in extending the Pejepscot wharf was burned and 3500 cords of its pulpwood, mostly spruce, stored on the fuel company's wharf, was more or less burned.

BRILLIANT SCENE AT STATE HOUSE

Calvin Coolidge, Vice President-Elect, Becomes a Private Citizen

Gov. Cox Urges County
Jails Be Consolidated Under Control of State

Favors Raise for Teachers and More Power of Appointment for Governor

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Channing H. Cox was today inaugurated as the 49th governor of Massachusetts, amid traditional scenes of ceremonial brilliancy. Vice President-elect Calvin Coolidge, his predecessor, after relinquishing the ponderous key of state, left the state house without escort, once more a private citizen for the few weeks that remain before his inauguration at Washington on March 4.

In his inaugural address, Governor Cox "earnestly recommended" that all county jails be consolidated under the control of the state; advocated that the governor be given power to appoint and the attorney general and recommended that the present minimum legal salary for school teachers be materially raised.

The vice president-elect made no announcement as to his plans. It is expected that he will spend most of his time at home in Northampton, while problems confronting the incoming administration will receive his consideration. His temporary release

LOWELL'S MILK BILL IS OVER $2,500,000

Lowell's expenditure for milk last year aggregated over two and one-quarter million dollars, according to figures that are to be embodied in his annual report to the board of health by City Inspector of Milk Melvin P. Master. In the same time there was spent by the people of the city nearly a quarter of a million dollars for cream. The total expenditure for the two dairy products falls only a little short of $3,000,000. Considerable quantities of skim milk and buttermilk were also used.

Mr. Master is now engaged in preparing his report that will be submitted to the health board at an early date.

The report will state that the average daily consumption of milk in the city was 25,573 quarts. Of this about one-third was sold at wholesale to restaurants, bakers and dealers, who buy for re-selling. The remainder was delivered by dealers to consumers. Of the milk delivered to consumers about one-third was pasteurized.

There are 79 dealers licensed to deliver milk in the city. Of these only 11 deliver pasteurized milk. There are 673 stores licensed to sell the lactical fluid.

Of the milk coming into Lowell, the points from which it is supplied are as follows: Maine, 2400 quarts; New Hampshire, 5976 quarts; Vermont, 207 quarts; Massachusetts, 26,290 quarts. The figures are the daily averages for last year. All of the milk came from 407 dairies located in 24 cities and towns.

LEAP YEAR HERE
Cupid Didn't Make Much
Headway in Lowell

Leap year did not prove a boom period for Cupid insofar as Lowell is concerned, according to figures furnished by City Clerk Stephen Flynn. It had been supposed that the young cherub with the gauzy wings and bow and arrow had been putting in overtime work in this city during the last 12 months. Either, however, the young women did not live up to their leap year opportunities, or the young men were impervious to the alluring of feminine charms, for there were only 41 most applications for marriage licenses made at Mr. Flynn's office in 1920 than in 1919. The exact figures for the two years respectively are 1353 and 1322.

BONANNO FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 6.—Giuseppe Bonanno of this city was found guilty of murder in the second degree in a verdict returned by a jury in the Middlesex superior court early today. COOK WELLS BUILDING
IS CONDEMNED

The Cook wells building off Plain street has been found to be in an unsafe condition by Building Inspector Francis A. Connor and within a few days official notice will be sent to Commissioner Salmon of the fire and water department to make the necessary repairs or move the structure.

The Cook wells building, which houses the boilers and pumps for the wells of that district, was badly damaged by fire a few years ago and shortly afterwards alterations were made, but no permit for the work was secured from the office of the commissioner of public buildings. It was but a short time ago that the attention of Inspector Connor was called to the unsafe condition of the building.

LOWELL TEACHERS' ORGANIZATION MEETS

The regular meeting of the Lowell Teachers' organization held last night in the high school assembly hall was attended by about 150 members. Miss Caroline A. Downey, president of the organization, occupied the chair and she submitted a report relative to receiving a call for the presentation of "The Mikado." She said she believed the Opera House would be available and the date of the presentation will be January 31. Mr. F. O. Blunt is the musical director for the opera, while Miss Catherine O'Brien is the accompanist.

A feature of the meeting was a discussion by William F. Thornton chief attendance officer, of the novel "Paul Clifford." "This novel," he said, "is far different from other works of fiction by the same author, that it seems to draw its interest rather from practical than ideal sources. Out of some 11 novels or romances, embracing a great variety of scenes and characters, from the Purgatory of the Alps, from Rensj to the Last Days of Pompeii, Paul Clifford is the only one in which a robber has been made the hero.

"Without pausing to inquire what order of crime and sorrow are open to art and capable of administering to the proper ends of fiction, I may be permitted to observe that the present subject was selected and the novel written with a two-fold object:

"First, to draw attention to two errors in our penal institutions, a vicious prison discipline and a singularly criminal code—the habit of corrupting the boy by the very punishment that ought to redeem him, and then hanging the man at the first occasion as the easiest way of getting rid of our own blunders.

"Between the example of crime which the boy learns from the felon in the prison yard, and the horrible levity with which the mob gathers round the drop at Newgate there is a connection which a writer may be pardoned for seeking loftier regions of imagination to trace and to detect. So far, this book is less a picture of the king's highway than the law's road to the gallows, a satire on the short cut established between the

JESSE BURKETT REJOINS GIANTS

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Thirty-one years ago Jesse Burkett, a husky young left-handed pitcher, came down to the big city from Worcester, Mass., and joined the Giants, whose ranks had been thinned by the Brotherhood war. He was destined to make his mark—not as a pitcher, but as one of the greatest outfielders and hitters in the history of baseball.

On Feb. 26, when the Giants gathered in the Grand Central Terminal to board a train bound for their camp at San Antonio, Tex., Burkett, with sixtyer traces where the dark brown had been on his back in 1890—not as young as he was when he first donned the uniform of the Giants, but quite as husky and still very active—will rejoin the New Yorks.

Burkett had been signed by the Giants as a coach, and will assist John McGraw and Hugh Jennings, the team's manager, in sorting out the new material and showing the veterans how to hit and the good ones how to pitch. Burkett has gained considerable reputation as a teacher. For four years he developed championship nine at Holy Cross college. Teaching the young idea how to field and hit—and the young pitchers how to fling the ball is Jesse's forte. The Giants will find him a most useful addition.

With Burkett will go his son, Howard, who is quite a ball player on his own account and who has got a trial with the Giants. Burkett has resigned as coach at Holy Cross—a position in which he gained a reputation as the most successful instructor in college ranks—and the Worcester institution is wondering how it will fill the place. Jack Barry, who is a graduate of Holy Cross and lives in Worcester, has been mentioned, but it is doubtful if he will land the job.

HARVESTING ICE THIS TIME LAST YEAR

About this time last year the Daniel Gage Ice Co., was cutting ice on the Merrimack river. Men started harvesting the 1920 crop from the river the first week in January and the cutting continued for ten days. The ice was then between eight and ten inches thick. When the men got through the heavy harvest they repaired to ponds in the suburbs, where they cut out ice as thick as 20 inches. The cutting on the ponds and lakes was finished sometime in February and then a second crop was taken from the Merrimack.

There is no ice cutting going on now for there is not even a thin layer of ice on the river. In the early part of last week the river was partially frozen over and it was expected that the cold weather would continue and that it would be short before the ice cutting tools would be put in shape for the 1921 crop, but instead a hot wave struck this neck of the woods and as a result what little ice covered a portion of the river has disappeared. The ice on the ponds in surrounding towns, which last week was about two or three inches thick, is gradually thawing away. Miss Gage is optimistic, however, and is in hopes of harvesting her 1921 crop before the end of January.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Rev. Dr. Mosher and Mrs. Mosher conducted campaign at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church.

Taking as the basis for his sermon the story of the multiplication by Jesus of the few loaves and fishes to feed the multitude, Rev. Dr. Mosher told of the power and possibilities of prayer in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church last evening. The sermon was delivered as part of the evangelistic campaign that Dr. Mosher, assisted by Mrs. Mosher, is conducting.

During the evening Mrs. M. J. Marcott sang, "I've Wandered Off as I've Been told."

The men of the church have been divided into nine groups with the following group leaders: Wilbur McCord, Daniel Hinkley, C. C. Drew, Hartman Schmidt, R. T. Drew, Thomas Johnson, John Perry, George Scarlett, Fred Brooks, Frank Orrell.

The women group leaders are: Mrs. Hinkley, Miss Mildred Rugg, Miss Marion Dougherty, Miss Lilla Mooney, Mrs. Aha Schorr, Mrs. Oscar Palmer, Charles Drew, Miss Edith Atwood, Mrs. Hugh Greene, Miss Grace Colby.

CEMETERY COMMISSION

More Land Needed For Edison Cemetery—Only 200 Lots For Sale at Present Time

More land is needed for the Edison cemetery. This was brought out at a regular meeting of the cemetery commission held late yesterday afternoon, when the chairman, William D. Higby, informed his colleagues that only 200 lots in the cemetery remain for sale. The acquisition of the Bartlett land adjacent to the cemetery was discussed and it was finally decided to get in touch with the city solicitor to learn as to the best method to follow in getting a price for portions of the Bartlett land.

In the early part of the meeting monthly bills were approved and the chairman announced that the annual report of the commission will not be ready until the city treasurer's figures are completed. It is believed the report will be ready for the next meeting.

The needs of the Edison cemetery were discussed at length and inasmuch as difficulty is being experienced in locating certain graves at times, it was voted to print a condensed plan as a guide so that each lot owner can keep the plan and locate his lot without difficulty. Pres. De Valera Makes Denial

Mr. Griffith, the founder of the organization and of Prof. MacSwell. In the manifesto De Valera is quoted as denying that he is under guarantees of protection from the English government and it is stated that the crown forces are searching for him and are anxious to place him under arrest.

British Offer

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Associated Press—From a seemingly authorized statement issued in London last night, it appears that the British government is disposed to approach the government with a peace proposal meeting the government's stipulations that all questions of separatism be excluded; he would not be discouraged. On the contrary, under such circumstances, he would be treated as satisfying the prime minister's condition as to the delivery of the people in fact, and that for such purpose he would secure a safe conduct.

Stopped at Manchester, Eng.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Eamon de Valera stayed at least two nights and three days in Manchester last week on his way to Ireland from the United States, the Manchester correspondent of the London Times says. He arrived in an ordinary train, undisguised, and walked through the streets to keep an appointment with the leaders of the Manchester Sinn Féiners.

The Irishman who conducted this information to the correspondent added: "If he has left Manchester, he has done so in the same way he came—a free born citizen of the great Irish republic."

Brother Shot Dead

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Rev. Brother Finbar Avey, belonging to the Tyrone abbey nursing home in London, was shot dead during a military raid on the Imperial hotel here early this morning. He was attempting to escape through a window.

The raiders arrested four of the guests.

Raids in Dublin

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Armed men yesterday

raided the houses of rate collectors who had obeyed the orders of the local government board by depositing their collections in a bank to their own credit instead of that of the council which have acknowledged the Dail Eireann. The raiders compelled the collectors to sign cheques payable to treasurer transferring the money collected.

Members of the raiding party then remained on guard while their colleagues went to the bank and cashed the cheques. The money thus obtained will be turned over to the Sinn Féin county council and other local bodies concerned.

Tell of Meeting de Valera

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—The Associated Press correspondent yesterday conveyed with several persons who have seen and spoken with Eamon de Valera. He is reported to be in excellent health and is extremely busy, having already held several conferences with leaders of various departments of the Sinn Féin government. It is expected he soon will issue a message to the American people followed by a manifesto addressed to the Irish people.

Miss MacSwiney Asks Aid

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork, speaking here last night, made an appeal for funds for relief work in Ireland. She asserted that during the Valley Forge campaign the first ship laden with food for starving American soldiers came from Ireland, and died.

"Just as surely as your Yorktown followed, so shall ours, and that, too, before long."

WOMAN SUFFERED IN SILENCE

Health Poor, Beauty Fast Fading Away

---Made Believe She Was Well

A woman of New Auburn, (Me.) writes: "There must be lots of women who feel as I did. I suffered in silence many times on account of my pride, but now I know that a good laxative is essential to good health. I neglected my health trying to keep cheery and pretending I was all right when I wasn't. I had terrible pains, was 'grouchy' and my headaches almost killed me with pain, and worst of all from my viewpoint I had a sallow, unbecoming complexion which was not helped by face powders. Why didn't I try to cure myself rather than pretend? After taking Dr. True's Ellixir, I now know that a laxative was what I needed. Dr. True's Ellixir is mild and pleasant to take, and works just right for me. My complexion cleared up—bright and rosy—blemishes vanished and every one remarked how much better I looked."

—Mrs. E. J. B. New Auburn, Me.

The root of many of the evils of sickness is the bowels, a very vital part of the body.

A cold, a fever, diseases of the like can be helped at once, providing the operation of the bowels is normal—the first and most important relief can be had by giving a Laxative, be sure it is the power kind.

Most everywhere in these days of quick action and strile, forget their health. The laboring people hold down their meals, often go to bed right after eating, and wake up in the morning restless, force down a breakfast, and then are distressed all day.

An Outdoor Worker says: "I couldn't puzzle out what made me feel so bad. My food, home-cooked meals didn't even taste good, and I had headaches and was grouchy. I never thought it was constipation, but now I know, for I took four doses of your grand, I will never be without it again in case of constipation."—E. B. B. Allison, Mass.

The bowels need attention first and always. Rich foods, improper cooking, irregular and quick eating, lack of exercise can all be offset providing a mild laxative is taken regularly.

A Business Man writes: "The continual rush of office details and the short meal hours I get, together with, I think, restaurant foods, has simply knocked my system all to pieces. I felt lousy, and had no appetite until I took Dr. True's Ellixir as a laxative. It is a great thing. No one should neglect their bowels."

Dr. True's Ellixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, with an established reputation since 1851 (over 65 years) has accomplished the seemingly impossible. It has relieved thousands of sufferers from constipation, which causes so many terrible disorders.

Dr. True's Ellixir will benefit every one. The laborer who eats heartily and quickly; the office boy and girl who eat "fancies" and irregularly; elderly people who can't digest well, and children who suffer from intestinal parasites.

Symptoms of worms: Deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, offensive breath, hard and full belly, with occasional pains about the navel, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose and recurrent short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red spots on the tongue, starting during sleep.

Dr. True's Ellixir means a big saving to health and pocketbook. "At all dealers." Three sizes, buy the large size—Adv.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE RECEIPTS

The receipts from the sale of Christmas seals to aid in carrying on the work of the Lowell Tuberculosis Council will exceed those of last year, according to Fred Conna Weid, president of the council. The sum received last year was about $2500. This year it is hoped that nearly $2700 may be received.

Reports were received from two of the parochial schools today. From the Notre Dame school came a check for $1. From St. Peter's school came $1. Mr. Weid considers the showing excellent in view of the fact that there was delay in delivering the seals to the parochial schools.

Grants Parole to Lord Mayor Rich Farmer Admits Murder

Daniel J. O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, has been ordered at Norfolk, by an immigration board of inquiry. He appealed from the ruling and the case eventually will be referred to the state department for decision as to whether it will waive the special passport regulations.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 6.—Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, still declined today to discuss his presence in the United States, but Peter MacSwiney, brother of the late Terence MacSwiney, who accompanied him here as a "lowdown" said they had "some startling revelations" to make before the committee of the commission of 100 which is investigating the Irish situation. O'Callaghan is said to have affidavits that will be submitted to the committee. The British authorities, it was said, sought to obtain these papers but several raids proved futile.

Had Revolver Under Pillow

Miss Servant was said to have a very pleasing disposition and refined manner and easily made friends. She was given the best care at the local station. The finding of the key to unlock the window upon the outside window of the detention room, however, gave her the opportunity to escape. Toward midnight when it was quiet and the moon was in her own room, she arose, and dressed and quietly unlocked the window grating, the key being left in the lock, and jumped out to the camp.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

TO PREVENT GOUGING

Senators Submit Bills to
Protect Inaugural Crowds
From Profiteers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Measures proposing protection for inaugural crowds in Washington, March 4, from gouging hotel keepers, restaurant proprietors and landlords, as well as from the light-fingered gentry were introduced yesterday in the senate and their authors gave notice that they would be pressed for passage.

The measures were offered as the senate was adopting a resolution appropriating $50,000 to build an inaugural stand at the capitol and to defray other expenses there in connection with the induction of President-elect Harding into office. An attempt to cut the appropriation to $10,000 was unsuccessful.

A resolution introduced by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, would prohibit hotels from charging guests more than the rate charged during the last month and the present month. He told the senate that congress would provide police protection for the crowds from pickpockets and asked if any protection was to be given from "the bigger robbers."

"A pickpocket," he said, "may rob a visitor of $5 and if he is caught, he will go to jail. But a hotel proprietor may rob a visitor of $100 a day and insist upon doing it seven times over. Is there to be no protection against him?"

Senator Jones, republican, offered a bill which would go even further in protecting inaugural visitors. It would authorize the commissioners of the District of Columbia to regulate charges for meals and lodgings from Feb. 28 to March 10 and persons violating the regulations would be liable to fines from $100 to $1000 and prison sentences of six months.

Plans of the local inaugural committee got into the senate discussion during debate on the expense measure. Senator Lenroot, republican, of Wisconsin, said he was his opinion that the inauguration should end at the capitol when the president-elect took office.

"I noticed in the newspapers the other day," he said, "the suggestion that a dance might be given on the capitol plaza while the inaugural ball was given in one of the government buildings. The suggestion apparently was that the inaugural ball would be attended by the aristocracy while the peasantry might dance on the capitol plaza."

Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, said he knew of no such plan. Senator New of Indiana, who conferred with Edward B. McLean, chairman of the civil inaugural committee, said the committee had no plan to have the inaugural ball in a government building.

SAM WALTER FOSS
LITERARY CLUB

Lovers of the fitting lines and biths—some philosophy of Sam Walter Foss gathered, to the number of over 100, in Spaulding House yesterday afternoon at a New Year reception of the Sam Walter Foss Literary club. Among those present were the presidents of the Middlesex Women's club, the Educational club and the Research club.

Mrs. John Emerson, president of the club, was at the head of the receiving line. She was assisted by Mrs. Albert F. French, Mrs. W. B. Hatch and Mrs. E. A. Foss.

Rev. E. W. A. Jenkinson, pastor of the Duane Centre church, gave a short address on the life of Sam Walter Foss and read selections from his works.

Instrumental music was furnished by the Amphion Trio, and there was singing by Miss Isabel M. Fitch with Mrs. J. L. Fletcher as accompanist.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Doty. She was assisted by Misses Doris Howard, Esther Muller, Violet Hinds and Louise Thompson. Tees were served by Miss Blanche McDonald. At the tea table were Mrs. Maud Bryan.

The ushers were Misses Louise Thompson, Doris Howard and Charlotte McKen. Miss Marion Howard and Mrs. Edith Doty Black had charge of the dining room.

The decorating committee consisted of Mrs. Bowen and Miss Ella M. Penn. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. C. E. Doty and the general committee consisted of Mrs. F. L. Balcon, Mrs. A. L. Thompson and Mrs. Benjamin Cautler.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Miss Katherine Faulkner addressed the members of the Parent-Teachers' association at the Bartlett Training school recently. Her address was on the winter in France. Miss Faulkner spoke interestingly on her subject, and drew most of her information from observations made recently during a winter's trip in France. Her talk on native French home life was interesting. It was followed by a contribution by Miss Anna Volsard, who, with piano accompaniment by her daughter, Miss Gertrude Volsard, violin solos were rendered by Mrs. Paul Wagner. The poetry of "Mon Bambino," a lullaby sung by Mrs. Volsard, was written by Rev. J. A. Nohle, D.D., of St. Louis, Mo. The choir, led by John H. Lambert, presided at the meeting.

A new French invention is said to photograph accurately by telephone.

Sleep Like a Top

There is nothing so essential to good health as good sound, refreshing sleep. This you can not get if your stomach, liver or kidneys are out of order. It is an easy matter to keep these important organs in good condition if, when they are not working properly, you will take for a few days from 10 to 20 drops of SEVEN BARKS in a little water after each meal. It is a safe and remarkable remedy, scientifically blended from the extracts of roots and herbs, and has stood the test for nearly half a century.

If you want to "sleep like a top," as the old saying goes, you must take good care of your health.

SEVEN BARKS comes direct from Nature, and is a most valuable remedy in the home treatment of chronic disorders, such as indigestion, constipation, rheumatism, liver, kidney and stomach troubles. As a tonic and natural corrective SEVEN BARKS is without an equal, and should be in every home. It is nature's way of supplying tone and strength and overcoming disease.

Sleepless nights will cause you to get up in the morning, tired and unrefreshed, with a dull, heavy head, no appetite, etc.—these are symptoms of a disordered stomach, an inactive liver and kidneys. SEVEN BARKS will help restore the cause of these troubles. It acts safely and safely, but very effectively. At druggists. Price 25 cents—adv.

MASSACHUSETTS MILLS CLOSE TILL JAN. 17

The Massachusetts mills closed down in all departments last night to remain closed until Monday, January 17. The mills will be started up, it is announced, on the latter date, to remain in full operation for at least one week. No prediction can be made as to the operating schedule of the mills at the end of this single week.

The closing down is to allow of alterations in the power equipment that will make the machinery of the mills entirely electrically driven. The mills will be the first among Lowell's textile concerns to run an entire plant by electric current. The change is regarded as one of the most important ever made in the history of the city's manufacturing concerns.

The machinery of the mill is now partly operated by electricity. In making the alteration to full electric drive it is necessary to have all the power lines of the mill "dead" to avoid the possibility of serious accidents to persons who might come into contact with live wires.

In making the change that has been planned, two steam engines are to be displaced. One of these is of 2000, the other of 700 horsepower. In place of these two engines a steam turbine, that has already been installed, is to be used. This has a capacity of 3000 kilowatts or 1000 steam horsepower.

As part of the program for operating the mills by electricity, belts are to be discontinued in connection with some of the machines and individual motors attached for direct operation by electricity.

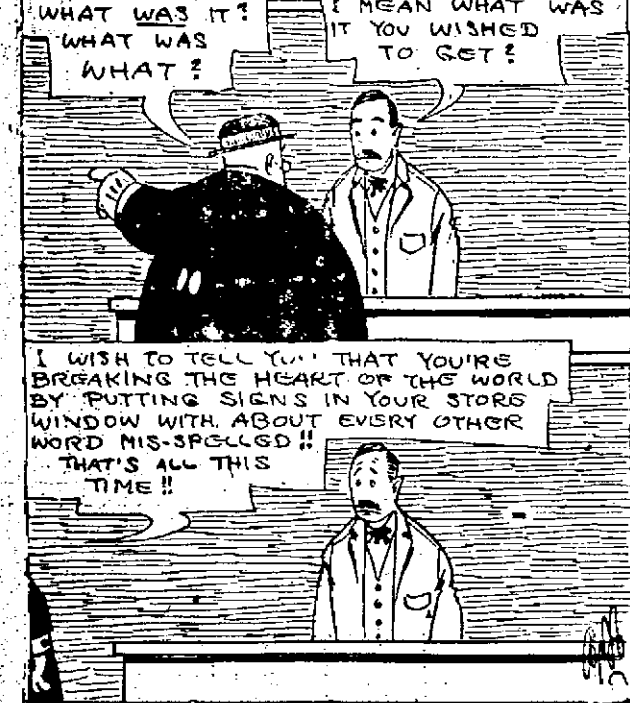

PARDON FOR PFAFF

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—The sentence of Albert Pfaff for receiving stolen automobiles was commuted by the executive council yesterday and he will be released immediately from the prison camp at Rutland. At the hearing on the parole petition, Atty. Gen. Allen said that Pfaff had furnished information of great value in connection with the recent investigation of automobile thefts.

DREADNOUGHT'S "FIGHTING FACE"

By PAUL N. WILSON

N. E. A. Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Here are the vitals of a modern battleship—eyes, ears, teeth, except the heart, or locomotive power.

You might clip it out and put it away for future reference when you read a story of Uncle Sam's fighting monsters.

The entire section marked "mast" can be shot away in battle, without seriously injuring the fighting ability of the ship. The topmast supports the wireless set, the fighting tower is where the lookout stands, searching for the first sight of an approaching enemy. The fore-yard arm is used to signal the speed, and other information to other ships by means of flags. The searchlights are used for many purposes, including signaling by flashlight. The range dial gives other ships of the fleet the range at which the guns are being fired. The navigator's bridge is the station of the captain and his assistants who supervise the ship while the captain's commands are signalled by sailors from the bridge wings.

The anti-aircraft guns are manned by marines against attack from above.

Note closely the narrow slits in the part marked conning tower. This is a circular room, running clear to the bottom of the ship, encased in 12-inch armor plate, from which the captain directs his ship in time of battle. All the vital and delicate instruments for telephoning and firing the guns are located at his hand deep in the tower.

As long as the ship floats the conning is secure within this little fortress and can direct his ship when everything else is shot away.

The five-inch guns are used for short range firing, up to eighteen or twenty miles, while the big 12-inch guns are capable of firing a half-ton projectile 33 miles. The small guns, shown below, are used for saluting the flag of off-liners. The 21-shot Presidential salute was arrived at by adding the numbers 1778, the year the first such salute was rendered.

LORD READING AS VICEROY TO INDIA

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Lord Reading, lord chief justice, formerly special ambassador to the United States, has been appointed to the post of viceroy of India, according to the evening papers.

The appointment of Lord Reading, as viceroy of India, was announced some time ago and attention then was called to the fact that for the first time in history a chief justice has been named as viceroy.

STOMACH ULCER GONE

Suffered 16 Years

Says His Stomach is Perfect Now, and His Weight Has Increased

"I had ulcers of the stomach so bad that I was sent to the hospital. Treatment there finally got me on my feet, but in a few days I was down again. You said you wouldn't guarantee Milks Emulsion to cure a bad case of ulcers of the stomach, but I tried it anyway. It does the work for others as it did for me, you ought not to be backward about any case of stomach ulcers. I have now taken 12 bottles and my stomach is in perfect condition. I feel better and weigh more than I have for 16 years, and I have had stomach trouble all of that time."

L. S. Walker, Greenville, S. C.

Thousands of people who have suffered agony from chronic stomach trouble in its worst forms, have been promptly relieved and soon restored to perfect health by Milks Emulsion. A trial will show, and a trial costs nothing.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in restoring and retaining the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. It is a wonderful food for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under the guarantee—take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terra Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Sent by Fred Howard and all first class druggists.—Adv.

YOU'LL GET RID OF

BLACKHEADS SURE

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the face and you will be surprised how the blackheads disappear. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the pores without any mark behind. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dirt and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin. Simply wash and squeeze, only cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get the blackheads out after they become hard. The calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anyone who tries this simple, safe and sure method should certainly try this simple method.—Adv.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Burton

What Happened in the Night

When Nancy and Nick awakened the next morning, they didn't know about the shadowy figure that had slipped down Santa's great chimney and across the big room to the store-room beyond, nor about the great sack that the same figure had carried away by one.

THE LITTLE SHOPS LIFTED THE TWINS HIGH INTO THE AIR

What the twins did know, was that Santa Claus, their dear fairy friend, seemed to be in trouble. "Everything's gone," he was saying. "Every doll, drum and hobby-horse! Every kiddy-kar and skooter! That shiny, blue Santa Claus, from the South Pole has stolen everything and got away in his flying machine!" "O dear!" he sighed. "What will I do for toys this year when all the good little boys and girls' birthdays come round?" Nick jumped out of his bed and ran to him. "Don't worry, Santa," he

SEN. SHERMAN CALLS ON PRES. ELECT HARDING

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 6.—Another irreconcilable Senator, Sherman of Illinois, was among those with whom President-elect Harding had engagements today to discuss the plan for an association of nations. It is understood that various domestic problems, including farmer relief, also were up for consideration at the conference.

Albert J. Beveridge, former senator from Indiana, and one of the leaders of the Roosevelt progressive party in 1912, also was on the president-elect's engagement list. It was said Mr. Harding sought his advice also regarding both international and domestic questions.

WOMAN SPEAKER OF LEGISLATURE

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 6.—A woman will be the next speaker of the British Columbia legislature. Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, newly elected representative from Vancouver, received such a large plurality in the recent election that the journal named her for the speakership today.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE ARE DAILY ASTONISHED

Lowell Sufferers Are Amazed at Splendid Results Obtained by Toxo Treatment

Lowell Sufferers From Constipation Take Toxo Treatment

Like the Miracle Man performing his wonderful results, so has the fame of Toxo, the constipation treatment, become known. Not only constipation and indigestion sufferers, but all their friends, are spreading the wonderful news to all who are in need of this great treatment.

Toxo, the constipation and indigestion treatment, has made hundreds of friends in Lowell. It is not a laxative, but a treatment that will not force the bowels to act. It is absolutely harmless. When dissolved, it passes through the intestinal canal, spreading itself thoroughly over and through the bowel contents, softening and moistening all waste matter, and allowing free and smooth evacuation without any distressing after-effects.

It is not a physic, but a treatment that relieves constipation and indigestion permanently and promptly, and assists greatly in cases of indigestion and other stomach ills.

Keen appetite is assured all who take Toxo treatment. Meals can be relished without any fear of upsetting the stomach or getting indigestion. Just take Toxo at the first sign of discomfort and it will give prompt relief.

It restores regular movement and helps to digest food by preventing the collection of waste matter in the bowels.

Toxo is for sale at Dows' Drug Store on Merrimack street. Get a package today and keep it in the house.—Adv.

WOMAN AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Hope Nearly Gone, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her

Star, N. C.—"My monthly spells gave me so much trouble, sometimes they would last two weeks. I was treated by two doctors without relief and they both said I would have to have an operation. I had my trouble for years and was unfit to do anything, and had given up all hope of ever getting any better. I read about your medicine in the 'Primitive Baptist' paper and decided to try it. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for about seven months. I shall never forget your medicine and you may publish this if you want to as it is true."—Mrs. J. F. HURSEY, Star, N. C.

Here is another woman who adds her testimony to the many whose letters we have already published, proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound often restores health to suffering women even after they have gone so far that an operation is deemed advisable. Therefore it will surely pay any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex to give this good old fashioned remedy a fair trial.

"Another cause of the present crime wave, which is always in evidence at the close of a world catastrophe, is the utter inability of many of our former services men to adjust themselves in civilized rules of conduct. The war changed their methods of living, stealing and killing were practically legalized, and we are now suffering from such perverted rules of conduct."

"I wish to protest against the methods of certain newspapers which preach 'law and order' day after day except when they touch upon prohibition. The prohibition law is now a part of the law of the land. Newspapers which poke fun at the law are inconsistent, in my opinion. They are not only inconsistent, but are preaching lawlessness."

"Hereditarily is the cause of much crime in the world. We should be careful of our conduct each day, so that we may not be furthering such tendencies. The day when we prevent sinful people from marrying will see the doing away of a great deal of crime."

TALK ON CAUSES OF PRESENT CRIME WAVE

Newspapers which preach "law and order" except where the prohibitory law is concerned and that poke fun against the statutes forbidding the sale of liquor were condemned as one of the causes of law-breaking by Rev. William Tutthill of the Elliot Union church in opening the speaking in an open forum held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association last evening. The subject for discussion, "Causes of the Present Crime Wave."

Preceding the opening of the forum a supper was served by the members of the association's ladies' auxiliary. Dr. Tutthill was introduced by Social Secretary S. R. Farnum.

"There is little question in my mind as to the real cause of the present wave of crime in the United States," said Dr. Tutthill. "The cause is the failure of the German people to teach that 'might makes right.' The result was the World War. The defeat of Germany did not result in the disappearance of the doctrine, for the leaders of the working class in Russia took up the same philosophy in their plans of direct action. They disregarded all moral laws. Direct actionists in this country have the same idea in mind, one of the results of which has been

RETIRING ADDRESS BY GOV. CLEMENT

MONTEPELIER, Vt., Jan. 6.—Governor Percival W. Clement, in his retiring address to the legislature today, declared that the curriculum established in high schools tends to educate children beyond what is necessary to develop them into good and intelligent citizens and questioned the advisability of such training on the part of the state. He said that one of the mental difficulties with the whole matter of education was the inadequacy of salaries paid to the teachers in rural and elementary schools. He urged generous and whole-hearted measures for the training of teachers and advocated extensive improvement in rural schools.

The governor said the policy of the state in employing prisoners, outside of prison walls on various work had been a splendid success and that the earnings of the men had amounted to several thousand dollars each season. He recommended consideration of the indeterminate sentence for those convicted of felony and if that was not provided, that modification be made of certain laws which would give the courts a wider latitude in passing sentence.

He called attention to what he termed the inadequacy of salaries paid to many state department heads and superior and supreme court judges, stating that he believed that a substantial increase could be made in the salaries of these officials at an annual expense of not more than $50,000.

Channing H. Cox Inaugurated As the Forty-Ninth Governor of Massachusetts Today

BRILLIANT SCENE AT STATE HOUSE

Calvin Coolidge, Vice President-Elect, Becomes a Private Citizen

Gov. Cox Urges County Jails Be Consolidated Under Control of State

Favors Raise for Teachers and More Power of Appointment for Governor

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Channing H. Cox was today inaugurated as the 49th governor of Massachusetts in a tradition of scenes of ceremonial brilliance. Vice President-elect Calvin Coolidge, his predecessor, after relinquishing the ponderous key of state, left the state house without escort, once more a private citizen for the few weeks that remain before his inauguration at Washington on March 4.

In his inaugural address, Governor Cox "earnestly recommended" that all county jails be consolidated under the control of the state; advocated that the governor be given power to appoint the state treasurer, secretary, auditor and the attorney general; and recommended that the present minimum legal salary for school teachers be materially raised.

The vice president-elect made no announcement as to his plans. It is expected that he will spend most of his time at his home in Northampton, where problems confronting the incoming administration will receive his consideration. His temporary residence is at No. 4.

LOWELL'S MILK BILL IS OVER $2,500,000

Lowell's expenditure for milk last year aggregated over two and one-quarter million dollars, according to figures that are to be embodied in his annual report to the board of health by City Inspector of Milk Melvin F. Master. In the same time there was spent by the people of the city nearly three-quarters of a million dollars for cream. The total expenditure for the two dairy products falls only a little short of $3,000,000. Considerable quantities of skim milk and buttermilk were also used.

Mr. Master is now engaged in preparing his report that will be submitted to the health board at an early date.

The report will state that the average daily consumption of milk in the city was 35,573 quarts. Of this about one-third was sold at wholesale to restaurants, bakers and dealers, who buy for re-selling. The remainder was delivered by dealers to consumers. Of the milk delivered to consumers about one-third was pasteurized.

There are 79 dealers licensed to deliver milk in the city. Of these only 11 deliver pasteurized milk. There are 673 stores licensed to sell the lactical fluid.

Of the milk coming into Lowell, the points from which it is supplied are as follows: Maine, 8400 quarts; New Hampshire, 6576 quarts; Vermont, 101 quarts; Massachusetts, 26,290 quarts. The figures are the daily averages for last year. All of the milk came from 407 dairies located in 24 cities and towns.

LEAP YEAR HERE Cupid Didn't Make Much Headway in Lowell

Leap year did not prove a boon period for Cupid insofar as Lowell is concerned, according to figures furnished by City Clerk Stephen Flynn. It had been supposed that the young cherub with the gauzy wings and bow and arrow had been putting in overtime work in this city during the last 12 months. Either, however, the young women did not live up to their leap year opportunities, or the young men were impervious to the alluring of feminine charms for there were only 41 more applications for marriage licenses made at Mr. Flynn's office in 1920 than in 1919. The exact figures for the two years respectively are 1233 and 1232.

RICH FARMER ADMITS MURDER

Caleb L. Cunningham. Confesses That He Killed John Johnson at Milford

Body of Victim Was Found in Pine Woods Late Last Night

QUINCY, Jan. 6.—The killing of John Johnson, the laborer whose body was found late last night in the pine woods on the Milton line, was admitted today by Caleb L. Cunningham, a wealthy Milton farmer. In announcing Cunningham's confession the police said also that they had found an axe owned by Johnson in a barrel of lime near the Cunningham bungalow, and in the house found the gun which they said the farmer admitted he used in the shooting. Indications were that Johnson had been shot down as a poacher by the farmer who had objected previously to trespass on his property by woodcutters.

Johnson's body was located by a searching party just before midnight last night. From a hasty examination of the bullet wound in the left side, it seemed to the authorities that the man had been shot from behind. Chief of Police Goodhue supplemented this observation with the statement that

FINED $100 FOR ILLEGAL SALE OF LIQUOR

Abelias Stiles, whose home was raided last night by Officers Conney, Clark and Winn on a search warrant, was charged with illegal sale of intoxicating liquor in police court today and fined $100.

He at first entered a plea of not guilty claiming that his wife was guilty of making the sale, but when he was put under bonds for trial next week he changed his plea to guilty. The officers seized a small quantity of moonshine whiskey and a large barrel containing 25 gallons of mash at his home.

INCREASE HOUSE MEMBERSHIP

House Census Committee
Agrees to Report to Congress the Siegel Bill

Would Give Massachusetts
Two More Members—
Other Gains

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The house census committee agreed today to report to congress the Siegel bill fixing the membership of the house at 483, an increase of 48 over the present membership. It also recommended a constitutional amendment limiting the membership of future houses to 500.

The basis of representation was fixed at one member for every 218,375 inhabitants. Under this bill the states would gain as follows: Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 1; California, 5; Connecticut, 1; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 3; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 2; Michigan, 4; Minnesota, 1; New Jersey, 2; New Mexico, 1; New York; North Carolina, 2; Ohio, 4; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 4; South Carolina, 1; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 2; Virginia, 1; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1 and Wisconsin, 1. No state would lose any representation.

Under the committee's bill the New England states would have representation as follows:

Connecticut, 6; Maine, 4; Massachusetts, 15; New Hampshire, 2; Rhode Island, 3; Vermont, 2.

The bill provides that in case of any increase in the number of representatives in any state such additional representatives shall be elected at large until the state legislatures pass redistricting laws.

LIVING OVER A RAGING FURNACE

Police and Firemen Seek to

Fire in Lower West Scranton Mine District Endan-
gers Thousands

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 6.—Residents of lower West Scranton are living over a raging furnace while officials of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad and the city police and fire departments are trying to determine the exact location of a fire covering 50 acres underground.

The fire was discovered Monday when huge clouds of smoke began pouring through the airshaft of the Continental Mine, owned by the railroad.

While there appears to be no immediate danger to the thousands of people living over this particular area, officials fear that if any surface settlements should occur while the blaze is raging, the fumes of gas, sulphur and black damp would creep up through the crevices and possibly enter the homes of the residents with results that might in some cases prove fatal.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 6.—A four year search by Mrs. Helen Milford for her husband, Raymond Milford, who left her two months after their marriage here, ended today with the receipt of information that Milford was on trial in Buffalo, N. Y., charged with killing Abram Vellen.

IN ROUGH-AND-TUMBLE Ex-Service Man, Shell Shock Victim, Gives Officer Hard Tussle

Traffic Officer Edward Connor and an ex-soldier, who is suffering from shell-shock, had a little rough-and-tumble in Merrimack square at about 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. The mix-up was witnessed by scores of people, but no one attempted to lend a helping hand to the officer and it was not until Sergt. Palmer and Inspector Walsh appeared on the scene, that the young man was subdued and taken to the police station, where he was booked for safe-keeping.

It seems that shortly before 12:30 o'clock the young man was going through East Merrimack street shouting at the top of his voice. Sergt. Palmer and Inspector Walsh, who happened along at that time, endeavored to quiet him, but their efforts proved fruitless and finally it was decided to escort him to the station for safe-keeping. While walking down East

QUESTION COMMISSION Charter-makers to Be Ques- tioned by Members of Chamber of Commerce

The members of the Lowell charter commission are to be placed—or rather they are to place themselves—on the grill at the annual meeting of the chamber of commerce to be held in Memorial hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

An invitation has been sent by the chamber to all of the members of the commission to be present at the meeting, and to give their views regarding different provisions of the new charter and to answer any question that the members may propound.

It is expected that each person present will have placed in his hands at the opening of the session a copy of the proposed charter.

Other features of next Tuesday's meeting will be a vocabulary address by President William N. Gould and reports on the year's activities of the chamber.

Drive For New Members

The membership committee of the chamber has completed plans for the drive for new members that is soon to start. Charles W. Howland has been selected to have charge of the campaign, taking the place of Chairman C. D. A. Grasse, who is compelled to be away from Lowell during the time of the drive.

Captains of teams to engage in the drive have been selected as follows: Dr. E. A. Kent, Fred Hayward, J. R. Cannon, George A. Menker and J. P. Sarre. An additional team is to be organized by members of the Rotary club.

The Traffic Club

A meeting of the Lowell Traffic club is to be held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. John A. McKenna, chairman of the club, will name the chairman of the standing committee of the organization, who will later select their associates. The committee are as follows: Claims and damages, grievances and complaints; classification and rates; membership, meetings and entertainments. The resignation of the secretary-treasurer, Winfield S. Whitcomb, will be acted upon. A large number of applications for membership will be considered.

Veteran Athletes of Philadelphia on Jan. 26

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—The Veteran Athletes of Philadelphia, an organization of sports champions of more than 25 years ago, that has undertaken to name annually the eastern college football champions, has selected Boston College this year.

In a letter to Rev. William Devlin, S.J., president of the college, inviting him, Capt. Luke Urban and Major Frank W. Cavanaugh, the team's coach, to be present to receive a championship cup at the annual banquet of the veteran athletes at Philadelphia on Jan. 26, Eugene C. Bonniwell, president of the association, wrote:

"Our executive committee, at a recent meeting unanimously decided to present a championship cup on behalf of our association, to the eastern football champions each year, basing the recognition of the championship upon the colleges that meet all comers, draw no line of exclusion and, having met all comers, won all their games, or the greatest part of them, in comparison with other teams. It was the unanimous judgment of our association that Boston college had earned the right to the cup this year, and it is our desire to present such trophy to your college for permanent ownership."

James Liston of Lowell was a member of the B. C. champions and played an important part in setting up the record that brought the team this signal honor.

PENROSE FAVORS TARIFF BILL

Chairman of Senate Finance Committee to Support
House Emergency Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate finance committee, announced today he would support the house emergency tariff bill, although he hoped for certain modifications of the rates.

The senator's announcement was made at the conclusion of his first open hearings on the measure by his committee. In a formal statement he said he desired to correct "misunderstanding which seemed to have gotten abroad concerning the status of the so-called emergency tariff." He denied that there was any difference of opinion among republicans upon this measure.

The senator said there was also an unwarranted impression of rivalry between the east with its manufacturing industries and the agricultural south and west as regards the emergency bill. Eastern sections were in favor of adequate protection for the farming interests as for any other industry, he said.

Had High Time Here This case has had a touch of the sensational since the servant girl was arraigned one week ago. She was arrested with one Jeanne Phillips of Worcester, an escaped prisoner from Lancaster who has since been returned to that institution. Both were in this city for about a month, living the high life and enjoying different parties with young men of the city who furnished them with money. The girls claimed to be daughters of wealthy parents in New York and they told the police that they were intimately acquainted with several prominent young men. Last Friday the servant girl's case was continued for one week to give time for an examination. She was sent to the House of the Good Shepherd in Boston for detention. To be on hand for her trial this morning she was brought back to the local station late yesterday afternoon and put in the detention room which faces out upon the Continued to Page 9

The officers broke through the camp door and found the girl, partially dressed, lying on a mattress on the floor with a loaded 38 calibre Colt automatic under her pillow. No additional charge was entered against her, but she was ordered under $1000 bail until tomorrow morning. LOWELL TEACHERS' ORGANIZATION MEETS

The regular meeting of the Lowell Teachers' organization held late yesterday afternoon in the high school assembly hall was attended by about 150 members. Miss Caroline A. Downey, president of the organization, occupied the chair and she submitted a report relative to carrying a bill for the presentation of "The Mikado." She said she believed the Opera House would be a suitable place for the presentation of the play on January 31. Mr. F. G. Blunt is the musical director for the opera, while Miss Gertrude O'Brien is the accompanist.

A feature of the meeting was a discussion by William F. Thornton chief attendance officer, of the novel, "Paul Clifford." "This novel," he said, "is far from other works of fiction by the same author, that it seeks to draw its interest rather from practical than ideal sources. Out of some 12 novels or romances, embracing a great variety of scenes and characters, from Felham to the Pilgrims of the Rhine, from Elfen to the Last Days of Pompeii, Paul Clifford is the only one in which a robber has been made the hero.

"Without pausing to inquire what order of crime and sorrow are open to art and capable of administering to the proper ends of fiction, I may be permitted to observe that the present subject was selected and the novel written with a two-fold object:

"First, to draw attention to two errors in our penal institutions. A vicious prison discipline and a sanguinary criminal code—the habit of murdering the boy by the very punishment that ought to redeem him, and then hanging the man at the first occasion as the easiest way of getting rid of our own blunders.

"Between the example of crime which the tyro learns from the felon in the prison yard, and the horrible levity with which the mob gathers round the drop at Newgate there is a connection which a writer may be pardoned for seeking to remove from the imagination to trace and to detect. So far, this book is less a picture of the king's highway than the law's loyal road to the gallows, a satire on the short cut established between the

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Thirty-one years ago Jess Burckett, a husky young left-handed pitcher, came down to the big city from Worcester, Mass., and joined the Giants, whose ranks had been thinned by the Brotherhood war. He was destined to make his mark—not as he had hoped, in the role of a pitcher, but as one of the greatest outfielders and hitters in the history of baseball.

On Feb. 25, when the Giants gathered in the Grand Central Terminal to board a train bound for their camp at San Antonio, Tex., Burckett, with silver traces where the dark brown had been on his tuck back in 1890—not as young as he was when he first donned the uniform of the Giants, but quite as husky and still very active—will rejoin the New Yorks.

Burckett has been signed by the Giants as a coach, and will assist John McGraw and Hugh Jennings, the deputy manager, in sorting out the new material and showing the weak batters how to hit and the good ones how to hit better. Burckett has gained considerable reputation as a teacher. For four years he developed championship hitters at Holy Cross college. Teaching the young line how to field and hit—and the young pitchers how to fling the ball is Jess's forte. The Giants will find him a most useful addition.

With Burckett will go his son, Howard, who is quite a ball player on his own account and who will get a trial with the Giants. Burckett has resigned as coach at Holy Cross—a position in which he gained a reputation as the most successful mentor in college ranks—and the Worcester institution is wondering how it will fill the place. Jack Barry, who is a graduate of Holy Cross and lives in Worcester, has been mentioned, but it is doubtful if he will land the job.

HARVESTING ICE THIS TIME LAST YEAR

About this time last year the Daniel Gage Ice Co., was cutting ice on the Merrimack river. Men started harvesting the 1920 crop from the river the first week in January and the cutting continued for ten days. The ice was then between eight and ten inches thick. When the men got through the river harvest they reported to ponds in the suburban towns, where they cut ice as thick as 20 inches. The cutting on the ponds and lakes was finished sometime in February and then a second crop was taken from the Merrimack.

There is no ice cutting going on now for there is not even a thin layer of ice on the river. In the early part of last week the river was partially frozen over and it was expected that the cold weather would continue and that it would be a short time before the ice cutting tools would be put in shape for the 1921 crop, but instead a hot wave struck this neck of the woods and as a result what little ice covered a portion of the river has disappeared. The ice on the ponds in surrounding towns, which last week was about two or three inches thick, is gradually thawing away. Miss Gage is optimistic, however, and is in hopes of harvesting her 1921 crop before the end of January.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Rev. Dr. Mosher and Mrs. Mosher Conduct Campaign at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church

Taking as the basis for his sermon the story of the multiplication of Jesus of the few loaves and fishes to feed the multitude, Rev. The sermon was delivered as part of an evangelistic campaign that Dr. Mosher, assisted by Mrs. Mosher, is conducting.

During the evening Mrs. M. J. Marcott sang, "I've Wandered Off as I've Been Told."

The men of the church have been divided into nine groups with the following leaders: Wilbur M. Gregory, Daniel Hinkley, C. C. Drew, Hartman Schmidt, R. T. Drew, Thomas Johnson, John Henry, George Scariott, Fred Brooks, Frank Grell.

CEMETERY COMMISSION

More Land Needed For Edison Cemetery Only 200 Lots For Sale at Present Time

More land is needed for the Edison cemetery. This was brought out at a regular meeting of the cemetery commission held last night at the city hall. The chairman, William D. Riehl, informed his colleagues that only 200 lots in the cemetery remain for sale. The acquisition of the Bartlett land adjacent to the cemetery was discussed and it was finally decided to get in touch with the city solicitor to learn as to the best method to follow in getting a price for portions of the Bartlett land.

In the early part of the meeting monthly bills were approved and the

The needs of the Edison cemetery were discussed at length and inasmuch as difficulty is being experienced in locating certain avenues at times, it was voted to print a condensed plan as a guide so that each lot owner can keep the plan and when his lot is ready for sale, he can refer to it without difficulty. The publication of the plan was referred to Mr. Taylor, Mayor Thompson appeared before the commission in behalf of an employee of the department, who claims he did not receive his two-weeks' vacation this year and the matter was referred to the clerk of the commission.

Pres. De Valera Makes Denial

their Griffith, the founder of the organization and of Prof. MacNeill.

In the manifesto De Valera is quoted as denying that he is under guarantees of protection from the English government and it is stated that the crown forces are searching for him and are anxious to place him under arrest.

British Offer

LONDON, Jan. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—From a seemingly authoritative statement issued in London last night, it may be inferred that should Eamon de Valera be disposed to approach the government with a peace proposal, the government's stipulations that all questions of separation be excluded he would not be discouraged. On the contrary, under such circumstances, he would be treated as satisfying the prime minister's condition as being "to deliver the goods" in fact, and that for such purpose he could secure a safe conduct.

Stopped at Manchester, Eng.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Eamon de Valera stayed at least two nights and three days in Manchester last week on his way to Ireland from the United States, the Manchester correspondent of the London Times says. He arrived in an ordinary train, undisguised, and walked through the streets to keep an appointment with the leaders of the Manchester Sinn Fein.

The Irishman who volunteered this information to the correspondent added: "If he has left Manchester, he has done so in the same way he came—a free born citizen of the great Irish republic."

Brother Shot Dead

CORR, Jan. 6.—Rev. Brother Finbar D'Arcy, belonging to the Twynford abbey nursing home in London, was shot dead during a military raid on the Imperial hotel here early this morning. He was attempting to escape through a window.

The raiders arrested four of the monks.

Raid in Dublin

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Armed men yesterday raided the houses of rale collectors who had obeyed the orders of the local government board by depositing their collections in a bank to their credit instead of that of the council, which have acknowledged the Dail Eireann. The raiders compelled the collectors to sign cheques payable to bearer transferring the money collected.

Members of the raiding party then remained on guard while their colleagues went to the bank and cashed the cheques. The money thus obtained will be turned over to the Sinn Fein council and other local bodies concerned.

Tell of Meeting of Valera

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—The Associated Press correspondent yesterday conversed with several persons who have seen and spoken with Eamon de Valera. He is reported to be in excellent health and is extremely busy, having already held several conferences with leaders of various departments of the

Woman Suffered in Silence

Health Poor, Beauty Fast Fading Away ---Made Believe She Was Well

A woman of New Auburn, (Me.), writes: "There must be lots of women who feel as I did. I suffered in silence many times on account of my pride, but now I know that a good laxative is essential to good health. I neglected my health trying to keep chery and pretending I was all right when I wasn't. I had terrible pains, was 'groghy' and my headaches almost killed me with pain, and worst of all from my viewpoint I had a 'sallow,' unbecoming complexion which was not helped by face powders. Why didn't I try to cure myself rather than pretend? After taking Dr. True's Ellixir, I now know that a laxative was what I needed. Dr. True's Ellixir is mild and pleasant to take, and works just right for me. My complexion cleared up, my skin and ruddy, my bowels vanished and every one remarked how much better I looked."

—Mrs. E. J. B., New Auburn, Me.

The root of many of the evils of sickness is the bowels, a very vital part of the body.

A cold, a fever, dizziness or the like can be helped at once, providing the operation of the bowels is normal—the first and most important relief can be had by giving a laxative, be it the proper kind.

Most everybody in these days of quick action and strife, forget their health. The laboring people hold down their heads, often go to bed right after eating, and wake up in the morning restless, force down a breakfast, and then are distressed all day.

An Outdoor Worker says: "I couldn't puzzle out what made me feel so bad. My good, home-cooked meals didn't even taste good, and I had headaches

Sinn Fein government. It is expected he soon will issue a message to the American people followed by a manifesto address to the Irish people.

According to these informants, Prof. de Valera did not come here on a peace mission but because of the conviction that a situation had arisen urgently requiring his presence. They still insist that any overtures must come from the British and that negotiations are only possible on the basis of independence and by a treaty between the two governments.

Miss MacSwiney Asks Aid

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork, speaking here last night, made an appeal for funds for relief work in Ireland. She asserted that during the Valley Forge campaign the first ship to leave with food for starving American soldiers came from Ireland, and added:

"Just as surely as your Yorktown followed, so shall ours, and that, too, before long."

The bowels need attention first and always. Such foods, improper cooking, irregular and quick eating, lack of exercise can all be offset providing a mild laxative is taken regularly.

A Business Man writes: "The continual run of office details and the short meal hours I get, together with, I think, restaurant foods, has simply knocked my system all to pieces. I felt lousy, and had no appetite until I took Dr. True's Ellixir as a laxative. It is a great thing. No one should neglect their bowels."

Dr. True's Ellixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, with an established reputation since 1831 covering 80 years, has accomplished the seemingly impossible. It has relieved thousands of sufferers from constipation, which causes so many terrible evils.

Dr. True's Ellixir will correct every one: The laborer who eats heartily and quickly; the office boy and girl who eat "fancies" and irregularly; elderly people who can't digest well; and children who suffer from intestinal parasites.

Symptoms of worms: Deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, offensive breath, hard and full bowels with occasional pains about the navel, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose and rancid, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red points on the tongue, starting during sleep.

Dr. True's Ellixir means a big saving to health and pocketbook. "At all dealers." Three sizes. Buy the large size—Adv.

Senators Submit Bills to
Protect Inaugural Crowds
From Profileers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Measures proposing protection for inaugural crowds in Washington, March 4, from roughing hotel keepers, restaurant proprietors and landlords, as well as from the light-fingered gentry were introduced yesterday in the senate and their authors gave notice that they would be pressed for passage.

The measures were offered as the senate was adopting a resolution appropriating $50,000 to build an inaugural stand at the capitol and to defray other expenses there in connection with the induction of President-elect Harding into office. An attempt to cut the appropriation to $10,000 was unsuccessful.

A resolution introduced by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, would prohibit hotels from charging guests more than the rate charged during the last month and the present month. He told the senate that congress would provide police protection for the crowds from pickpockets and asked if any protection was to be given from "the bigger robbers."

"A pickpocket," he said, "may rob a visitor of $5 and if he is caught he will go to jail. But a hotel proprietor may rob a visitor of $100 a day and insist upon doing it seven times over. Is there to be no protection against him?"

Senator Jones, republican, offered a bill which would go even further in protecting inaugural visitors. It would authorize the commissioners of the District of Columbia to regulate charges for meals and lodgings from Feb. 25 to March 10 and persons violating the regulations would be liable to fines from $100 to $1000 and prison sentences of six months.

Plans of the local inaugural committee got into the senate discussion during debate on the expense measure. Senator Leavort, republican, of Wisconsin, said it was his opinion that the inauguration should end at the capitol when the president-elect took office.

"I noticed in the newspapers the other day," he said, "the suggestion that a dance might be given on the capitol plaza while the inaugural ball was given in one of the government buildings. The suggestion apparently was that the inaugural ball would be attended by the aristocracy while the peasantry might dance on the capitol plaza."

Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, said he knew of no such plan. Senator New of Indiana, who conferred with Edward B. McLean, chairman of the civil inaugural committee, told the senate that he knew of no plan to have the inaugural ball in a government building.

SAM WALTER FOSS LITERARY CLUB

Lovers of the lifting lines and blithesome philosophy of Sam Walter Foss gathered to the number of over 100, in Spaulding House yesterday afternoon at a New Year's reception of The Sam Walter Foss Literary Club. Among those present were the presidents of the Middlesex Women's club, the Educational club and the Research club.

Mrs. John Emerson, president of the club, was at the head of the receiving line. She was assisted by Mrs. Albert F. French, Mrs. W. E. Hatch and Mrs. B. A. Foss.

Rev. E. W. A. Jenkinson, pastor of the Draught Centre church, gave a short address on the life of Sam Walter Foss and read selections from his works.

Instrumental music was furnished by the Amphion Trio; and there was singing by Miss Hazel F. Tuttle with Mrs. E. L. Fletcher as accompanist.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Doty. She was assisted by Misses Doris Howard, Esther Muller, Violet Hinds and Louise Thompson. Jugs were served by Miss Blanche McDonald. At the tea table was Mrs. Maud Bryan.

The ushers were Misses Louise Thompson, Doris Howard and Charlotte McKee. Miss Marion Howard and Mrs. Faith Doty Black had charge of the dining room.

The decorating committee consisted of Mrs. Bowen and Miss Ella M. Penn. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. C. H. Howard and the general committee consisted of Mrs. F. L. Bacon, Mrs. A. L. Thompson and Mrs. Benjamin Cautler.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Miss Katherine Faulkner addressed the members of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Bartlett Training school recently on living conditions in the winter. Miss Faulkner spoke interestingly on her subject and drew most of her information from observations made recently during a winter's trip in France. Her talk on native French home life was interesting. The entertainment was contributed by Miss Anna Volard, soloist, with piano accompaniment by her daughter, Miss Gertrude Volard. Solos were rendered by Miss Paul Gagnon. The poetry of "Mon Hamelin" a lullaby written by A. Nolin, O.M.I., of St. Joseph's church, this city. Mrs. John H. Lambert presided at the meeting.

A new French invention is said to photograph accurately by telephone.

Sleep Like a Top

There is nothing so essential to good health as good sound, refreshing sleep. This you can not get if your stomach, liver or kidneys are out of order. It is an easy matter to keep these important organs in good condition if, when they are not working properly, you will take for a few days from 10 to 20 drops of SEVEN BARKS in a little water after each meal. It is a safe and remarkable remedy, scientifically blended from the extracts of roots and herbs, and has stood the test for nearly half a century.

If you want to "sleep like a top," as the old saying goes, you must take good care of your health. SEVEN BARKS comes direct from Nature, and is a most valuable remedy in the home treatment of chronic disorders, such as indigestion, constipation, rheumatism, liver, kidney and stomach troubles. As a tonic and general corrective SEVEN BARKS is without an equal, and should be in every home. It is nature's way of supplying tone and strength and overcoming disease.

Sleepless nights will cause you to get up in the morning, tired and unrefreshed, with a dull, heavy head, "bracketed" eyes—these are symptoms of a deranged stomach, liver, kidney and bowels. SEVEN BARKS will help remove the cause of these troubles. It is easy and safe, not very expensive. At druggists. Price 50 cents. —Adv.

POLO NOTES

The New Bedford Whalers, league leaders, will play Lowell at the Crescent rink Friday night.

The Whalers have held the top position in the league since the opening of the season. They jumped away to a flying start due to a week's training at home before the league began. Despite injuries to Gardner and Wiley, which kept both out of the lineup at various times, the team has never relinquished its position. High now Fall River is threatening to displace the Whalers, but the latter are determined to fight to the finish to retain the advantage. They are out to win every game possible, and will play hard to register a defeat over Lowell on Friday night.

The Lowell team confident after its great victory over Fall River on Friday night feels that it will halt the Whalers tomorrow night.

Newton continues to improve with every game and if he continues to advance, Jack Bond, who is on hand to strengthen the rush line, will have difficulty in breaking in.

A basketball game, starting at 7:30 o'clock will proceed the polo game tomorrow night.

LOWELL HIGH WINS
OVER READING HIGH

The first basketball game for ten years in which Lowell high was represented last night with Reading high school. Lowell won by the score of 18 to 16. Reading high school second team defeated the Lowell second team by the score of 14 to 1 in a short game between the halves.

The attendance at the game was very satisfactory. Spirit was high and occasional much cheering from the bleachers. Later when Lowell's more experienced and their good work becomes more widely known larger crowds will be expected.

Reading's team was much heavier than Lowell's and at times displayed superior knowledge of the game. Because of the height and weight of Reading's star players they were not able to get around as fast as some of Lowell's fast sprinters.

The first half ended with the score 11 to 7. The last two periods brought out fast work, both teams following each other closely with baskets until time was up. Lowell displayed good work for its first contest and Coach McIntyre is confident that with this start he can build up a very strong team.

Ordway was the star for Lowell, getting two field goals and eight on the free throw line was high man for Reading with ten field goals and four on free tries. The summary:

Team	Goals	Free	Total
Lowell	10	8	18
Reading	10	6	16

Goals of Lowell: Ordway, 10; Hunt, 1; H. MacAdam, 1; Gleason, 1; Brockman, 1; Davis, 1; Heslin, 1; Achin, Long, 1b.

Goals of Reading: Brock, 1b; Hook, 1b; Crosby, 1; MacDonald, 1; Jacobs, 1; Bruce, 1; Southwick, 1.

Total: Lowell 18, Reading 16.

HOCKEY DIFFERENCES ADJUSTED

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Boston will be represented by two clubs in the eastern circuit of the United States Amateur Hockey league, as the result of settling up differences which existed between the Boston Shoe Trades club and the amateur club of the Boston Arena. The management of the arena previously notified the team that its terms for the use of ice surface would not be accepted and announced that the Boston Amateur Hockey association would be the only team in the league from this city.

BIRKBECK CONTRACT RECEIVED

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—The signed contract of Birkbeck, former manager of the St. Louis Americans and now coach of the Red Sox has been received by the Boston club. It was announced today that the Birkbeck contract for the 1921 season to arrive. In a letter accompanying the contract, Birkbeck expressed himself as pleased with the prospect of playing here and predicted that the Athletics would be well up in front in this year's pennant race.

BILLY MURPHY WANTS

TO MEET CHANEY

Billy Murphy, the sterling featherweight from Staten Island is hot on the trail of Andy Chaney, who claims the title, owing to Johnny Kilbane's refusal to defend the same.

"Why doesn't Chaney meet me," says Murphy. "We were as good as matched at Jersey City last fall but Chaney put every impediment in the way of the promoters until they finally threw up their hands to disgust. I would rather box him to a decision than any boy in the class as I know that I have his number, but unfortunately for me, Chaney feels the same way. I know that if he will get in the ring with me there will be no necessity for the referee to give a decision, for he is the one boy that I know that I can stop. This may sound like scoldism, but if he ever gets in the ring with me, I want to be on record as he will have no alibi. My record entitles me to the match, as I have fought Jack Sharkey, Johnny Valzer, Joe Tibbits, Willy Atfield, Freddie Jacks, Charlie Pilkington, Sammy White, Bobby Michaels, Tommy Selke and in fact all the leading contenders in this class with the one exception of Chaney."

All Mothers Will Find Use For This Laxative

Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to a constipated child and note its quick recovery.

IN a growing family the subject of thought with the parents is how to keep the children healthy and happy, and what to do when they become ill. Most illnesses of childhood are the symptoms of constipation, such as headache, red tongues, flatulence, dizziness, loss of appetite and sleep, biliousness, etc.

You can surely feel safe in doing what tens of thousands of others have found results in giving according to the age of the child, a small quantity of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought last year at drug stores. It is America's favorite family remedy for constipation, indigestion and similar ills; and is especially suitable for children; women and old folks as it is so mild and gentle in action.

There is no secret about Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

What Happened in the Night

When Nancy and Nick wakened the next morning, they didn't know about the shadowy figure that had slipped down Santa's great chimney and across the big room to the store-room beyond, nor about the great sacks that the same figure had carried away one by one.

THE LITTLE SHOES LIFTED THE TWINS HIGH INTO THE AIR

What the twins did know, was that Santa Claus, their dear fairy friend, seemed to be in trouble. "Everything's gone," he was saying. "Every doll, drum and hobby-horse! Every kiddy-car and skootie! That scamp, Blue Santa Claus, from the South Pole has stolen everything and got away in his flying machine!" "O, dear!" he sighed. "What will I do for toys this year when all the good little boys and girls' birthdays come round?" Nick jumped out of his bed and ran to him. "Don't worry, Santa," he

TALK ON CAUSES OF PRESENT CRIME WAVE

Newspapers which preach "law and order," except where the prohibitory law is concerned and that poke fun against the statutes forbidding the sale of liquor were recondemned as one of the causes of law-breaking by Rev. William Tuthill of the Elliot Union church in opening the speaking in an open forum held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association last evening. The subject for discussion was, "Causes of the Present Crime Wave."

Preceding the opening of the forum a supper was served by the members of the association's ladies' auxiliary. Dr. Tuthill, introduced by Social Secretary N. R. Faraoun.

I had my trouble four years and was unfit to do anything, and had given up all hope of ever getting any better. I read about your medicine in the 'Primitive Baptist' paper and decided to try it. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for about seven months and now I am able to do my work. I shall never forget your medicine and you may publish this if you want to as it is true."—Mrs. J. F. HURSEY, Star, N. C.

RETIRING ADDRESS BY GOV. CLEMENT

MONTPELIER, Vt., Jan. 6.—Governor Percival W. Clement in his retiring address to the legislature today declared that the curriculum established in high schools tends to educate children beyond what is necessary to develop them into good and intelligent citizens and questioned the advisability of such training on the part of the state. He said that one of the fundamental difficulties with the whole matter of education was the inadequacy of salaries paid to the teachers in rural and elementary schools. He urged generous and whole-hearted measures for the training of teachers and advocated extensive improvement in rural schools.

Here is another woman who adds her testimony to the many whose letters we have already published, proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound often restores health to suffering women even after they have gone so far that an operation is deemed advisable. Therefore it will surely pay any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex to give this good old fashioned remedy a fair trial.

GREEKS WILL CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS TOMORROW

Tomorrow will be a gala day in the local Greek colony as the members of the community will celebrate their Christmas. The observance will begin this evening, when a special service will be held at the Holy Trinity Orthodox church in Jefferson street. The service which will be conducted by Rev. Nicholas Menides, will start promptly at 10 o'clock and continue until after midnight.

Greek speaking people of Lowell, who are employed in the mills or shops, which are operating tomorrow, will not show up for work, while the stores of the colony will shut down at noon. There will be no formal observance of the feast, but during the day Yuletide greetings will be exchanged and at noon family dinners will take place.

In compliance with a decree recently made public by Bishop Alexander of New York at this evening service prayers will be offered in the church for the health of King Constantine and members of his family. Such prayers will be offered every Sunday in all the Greek Orthodox churches of this country until further notice. The feast of New Year's will be a week from tomorrow, Friday, Jan. 14 and on that day these who are not on friendly terms will forget their differences and gifts will be exchanged.

GUNMEN IN LOWELL

Two Hold-ups Near Fort Hill Park Last Night

Two holdups in Rogers street in the vicinity of Fort Hill park shortly after 10 o'clock last night were followed early this morning by the arrest by Patrolman Charles Sharkey of two men, one carrying a loaded revolver and the other a dagger, in the South common.

The latter two were charged with carrying dangerous weapons in public court today and were confined under bonds of $1000 each until tomorrow. The police will seek information meanwhile as to their character. They gave their names as Arthur J. Beagard and Walter J. Lender, and claimed to have come here together from Pawtucket, Rhode Island. When caught by Patrolman Sharkey they were prowling about the common and could give no satisfactory explanation as to their intentions.

Holdups said to have been made in the neighborhood of the fall in Thorndike street last night may be linked up with the case of these two men by the police.

A man about 25 years old, stubby, and wearing a dark suit, held up William O'Connell, who lives in South street, at the point of a revolver in front of the Rogers Hall school. William Craig, who lives in the neighborhood of Walnut street, was held up at the corner of Rogers and Concord streets and held up after the first holdup. Craig struck the holdup man and the latter, it is alleged, fired two shots, one cutting Craig's knuckles and the other brushing past the front of his coat. The gunman, then, according to the story, dashed down Concord street and disappeared. When the holdup man ran away, Mr. Craig immediately crossed the street to O'Connell's coat office where he sent up with the police.

O'Connell was stopped by a strange man earlier and had a revolver pressed in his breast, but got away with a hand-shake with his would-be robber. He threw up his hands at the demand of the gunman but told him he had only a few cents in his pocket and he would give him half of that. O'Connell said he was just out of the army and had just been working with the gun taken from his chest and the assailant said, "Is that so? Well, you're worse off than I am. I was in the army myself, but I've got more than a few cents. Shake hands. Now get going."

The pair shook hands. O'Connell huffed it off and when he reached Bedford square he had an officer of his experience.

Two machines were sent out to scout all Belvidere, Lieut. Ryan, officers Conner, Clark and Winn in charge, Fort Hill, Boylston street, the Oaklands, Fairmount street and all the lower part of Belvidere was searched but no trace of the desperado was found.
